

ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION #7

RTF: March 30, 2019

1. Your friend says, "God knows everything we do wrong anyway, so why confess our sins?" How do you respond?
2. When we confess our sins, are they forgiven the moment we hear the words, "I forgive you all your sins"? If not...then at what time?
3. This is such a sad thing. Why do we have to talk about this ugly, wicked topic of sin? Can't we just tell people they're all okay and be happy?
4. Is the Lord's Supper something we do for God, or something God does for us?
