

Lesson 3: Sample Questions for Bible Study Surveys

Bible Study survey questions may address logistical issues such as:

1. What day of the week is best for you to attend Bible study?
(list the days that will work: Mon., Tue., Thur., Fri., Sat.)
2. What time of the day is best for you to attend Bible study?
(give specific options: 8:00 am, 6:30 pm, etc.)
3. How long would you like Bible to last?
(1 hours? 1.5 hours? Up to 2 hours? – remember to respect this request)
4. Do you need daycare in order to attend Bible study?
(if yes, leave a place for them to list the number and ages of children)
5. Do you need transportation?
(if yes, leave a place for them to list their address)
6. Would you like to have snacks at Bible study?
(if yes, leave a place for them to note dietary needs)
7. Please list any additional needs you have so we may help you participate in Bible study.
(leave a place for comments)
8. Do you have any specific expectations you would like to share so we are aware of what you're looking for?
(leave a place for comments)

Bible Study survey questions may also address topical issues such as:

1. What type of material would you like to study? Check all that apply:
Book of the Bible (please suggest a book)
Topical study (please suggest a topic)
Doctrinal study (please suggest a topic)
2. Do you have any specific recommendations or ideas for a study?
(leave room for a suggestion)
