Utilizing our schools for outreach

“Are there ways to connect with our school and early childhood families and connect those families to the Word?”

Motivated by Christ’s love you’ll discover actionable ways to build relationships with families in your youth ministries and create opportunities to connect them to God’s Word. Join us for this workshop. Snacks and lunch provided!

What a blessing and opportunity the Lord provides in our early childhood ministries and our schools to share the gospel with children and their families!
