

About the Lesson

God's command to be his witnesses to the ends of the earth is a tall order. Young children are God's most wonderful witnesses as they will proudly proclaim Jesus as their Lord and Savior without a thought of persecution or judgment from those around them.

The saying, "Out of the mouths of babes..." comes to my mind when I think of a young child who asks mommy/daddy, "Can we pray?" before a meal. I also think of the child who shares with mom and dad that they just can't wait to get to heaven to meet Jesus. If only we could all witness with the boldness and confidence of a young child.

May God bless the time you spend with your students, as you study his word and share the beautiful stories of how God used Paul and Lydia to be his witnesses.

To the Ends of the Earth

Bible Connection

“You will be my witnesses... to the ends of the earth.” Acts 1:8

Cross Connections

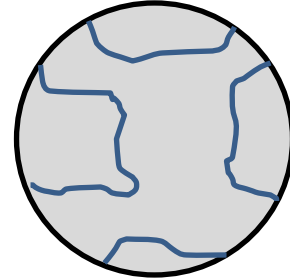

† God wants us to be his witnesses.

† You can be God's witness when you tell others about Jesus.

† God wants the whole world to know about Jesus.

Creation Corner

Create the earth by providing students with a coffee filter, small paint brushes, plus green and blue watercolor paint.

Science and Exploration

Provide a globe for students to explore and understand God's use of the phrase, “to the ends of the earth.”

Sensory Play

Play a few games of “Telephone.”

Have students sit in a circle. Start the conversation by whispering a message in one child's ear. Have them whisper to their neighbor until everyone “around the world” has heard the message.

- Talk about how God used Paul and Lydia to be his tools in spreading the message of Jesus to the ends of the earth.
- Talk about ways God uses US to be his tools to spread the message of Jesus.
