

YOUTH MINISTRY MADE SIMPLE

Guide 4 – Give teens opportunities to build Christian friendships.

After watching video 4, work through this guide with your team. It's most helpful if your team consists of people who are currently involved in your teen ministry, those interested in being involved in your teen ministry, and your pastor.

These guides are meant to help you initiate discussion, apply what you heard to your setting, and develop specific plans to implement any changes to your youth ministry.

Write down at least three fun event ideas. Then, share your list with the group.

- Events with little or no cost:

- Events with cost:

Have your teens rank your list of fun events from “favorite” to “least favorite.” Allow them to add to the list as well.

Identify who will organize each event.

Create a schedule of the service and fun events for the next year.

(Remember: Don't overcommit! It's better to start small. You can always add more.)
